Invited Perspective: Science does not speak for itself

Written by Kate Stanley, Executive Director at the FrameWorks Institute

---

The framing of science has rarely been as important as in 2020.

Data Supporting Gratitude

Seligman, et. al. 2005, American psychologist, 60(5), 410.

Think of people who have supported you in your life over the years and take a moment right now to be grateful for them.
